HABEGGER versus Corona

Dear Customer, Partner and Supplier

Due to the rapid spreading of the corona virus we find ourselves in an extraordinary situation.

The top priority for our company is the protection of our employees, their families and those at high risk. We do our best to maintain our operation and the delivery service.

Our production is still working. We act responsibly by making arrangements for secure the social distancing. The hygiene guidelines of the Federal Office of Public Health FOPH are applied.

The material and spare parts are available as usual. Our service for you may not be affected through the circumstances.

Please contact us per phone or email. It is possible to pick up the goods or to deliver it to us. An advance notification is highly appreciated. While picking up or delivering the material the rules of the Federal Office of Public Health FOPH must strictly be followed.

We are available for you as follows:

Phone +41 (0) 33 225 44 44 or +41 (0)79 311 07 80
E-Mail info@habegger-hit.ch

We do our best to operate reliably as usual.

For this extraordinary time we wish you all the best and the best of health.

Your HABEGGER Team
